 PENZANCE
 SHIP LETTER
 New & Gaber Bunting
 10. Backus Row, Charles Sq.
 Hoxton London

Dear Sir
 D Since I have August 3rd 1848 after a long interval I again take up my Pen to address you. I hope you will not think that the reason of my not writing you before, was because I had received no answer to the last I sent: it is true I have been expecting a letter from you, but it is merely by expecting that the next, I next ship would bring it, for the last 6 or 6 months past, that I have delayed writing, expecting you had would from brother for my answer. letters I can assure you are coming from ours at home, are things highly valued by us in this land, but when they come from them, who not only comfort us but by the expression of their kind wishes for our welfare, feel at the same time, afford us such instruction, or becomes a blessing to us, they are doubly valuable. It is a letter of the latter description I have been expecting from you Sir, and that I confess I have by any means any claim on you, farther than that of a Father in Christ, who I am sure feels happy at all times, to afford instruction to such as like myself are but babes in Divine knowledge. Many times I said I "came here," must have I felt of my unworthiness for so great a task I could have rejoiced to have been near you to obtain Counsel.
 My only comfort I have had has been able to say "I am not pursuing since I came to this station, my afflictions & trials have been heavy, very heavy, indeed the very remembrance of them quite overcame me. Yet blessed be God I have had some very precious seasons of quiet intercourse with Him, & some of these have followed in the conflicts. A particular instance of this I will remember in July 1848. In the house I had at the close of that month I had been from Tuesday to Sunday, morning in burning fever without remission, or one minute of ease from packing pains I was too much supposed very low, & hardly able to turn myself in bed at the pain rendering it impossible to lay still. My poor body was quite shivering with the burning heat. At this time Satan made a most powerful attack upon me, & for long short time his suggestions quite overpowered me, so I really thought I was going to Hell.
 At last I made an effort to lift my poor frame a little higher on the Pillows, & began to look to him who has said, "Call upon me in the day of trouble", I did call, & blessed be our blessed be his Holy Name, he heard, & while I was reflecting upon past manifestations of his favour. Such a flood of light & love broke in upon my poor soul, that it almost overwhelmed me, & I could do nothing but kneel, & praise. And let the world call it another season of this phase, yet I know, I began to mend from that hour and still I bless God for a measure of the same grace, & know he hears my Prayers, and unworthy as I am of such Honour, yet I have not been here without seeing some fruit. I truly feel the power of the apostles words "unto <sup>whom</sup> ~~who~~ <sup>are</sup> ~~indeed~~ <sup>are</sup> ~~the~~ <sup>the</sup> ~~least~~ <sup>the</sup> ~~of~~ <sup>of</sup> ~~all~~ <sup>of</sup> ~~kind~~ <sup>of</sup>
