

Recd 2nd May 1821

The Secretaries of the Wesleyan Mission 77, Abchurch Lane
London

No 8,

Seneca Leone March 29th 1820

Rev & dear Father

I received your letter of Jan^{ry} 4th by the Catalina, who arrived here March 19th. I cannot but say I was glad when I found no one was coming this side the Rams, as they would have had a great risk to run indeed. tho on the other hand, I can assure my dear Father, I could have been very glad to have seen some one to help me as my work is really too much for any one alone I have now 6 places to attend. & tho my strength would require I should give up some yet this I cannot possibly yield to, while I can any way possibly go to them. I thank God the cause looks well at present & there is I do firmly believe in the general & increasing active after workings. My dear accepted People as you are so much pleasure in their simple sincerity & upright walk, that I feel it quite a counterbalance for those peculiar trials & temptations of a Missionary station. & particularly of this station where I stand alone, I am very sorry that my poor humble efforts to do good as extensively as possible, has excited the envy of my fellow labourers & called forth some bitter sayings, tho not to my face, & they also feel from my having so