

fatal to my, already broken Constitution And find it a present reward I have sent home my accounts wh I am willing to stay here or go to Christmas 1819 & I hope they will any where else you wish to send me more satisfactory. Every Penny of this As I only wish to be in my place & all other Monies I draw on the and therefore do not wish to make Committee shall be satisfactorily any choice. I have now given up accounted for. My dear Father will the thought of having any help before please honour this Bill, and as soon the Rains nor do I indeed wish them as the Roof is finished which will be to come as the season is so far gone I hope in a Month. I will send their risk would be a great deal more home my accounts again to you Any other gloomy things in anticipation I trust was to avoid the return of that of having my house Bills drawn for my own use & the house in the next Lot broken As I shall write more particulars before I rob of many things. I have the Voyage sailing direct from hence Ann. been obliged to provide myself with I shall only add. I thank God I am them. A thing I should not do except so well as to enable me to do all my life was in danger, but a know. my work tho I know not what the loss of my having them will I hope sweet & health are such as I enjoy. I fighten them from again attempting ed at home. yet I thank God I am the same. I remain dear Father yours happy in my work

Respectfully & affectionately
Baker