

the inhabitants that the children are not learning anything and it is their wish in general that Mr. Kirk should attend the school, but I am sorry if he is obliged to leave the hog-brook as he had meetings every morning and evening the people. & I like to go there once a week in general. I had hopes that some good might be done among them, I would say again if it is possible, I would pray for a helper if you can get any, that will come in the name of Jesus. <sup>to</sup> Every missionary must come here with his life in his hands, but God can spare our lives here, as well as at home, & I have every prospect now, to stand the climate they God make me useful. I had some things from Capt. Rowe, you'll see by his price that the Committee would save much money, if they would embrace an opportunity 2 or 3 times a year to send few necessary articles, as we can not reasonably expect that no one will sell much under the market price in this place, and we must have the means of live; I assure you I try to live as sparingly as I can, but you see that it is expensive I received from Capt. Rowe

Mr. Hincheston & Miss Putcher is going home with Capt. Rowe I will be exceedingly obliged if you will have the goodness to ask Mr. Manshard to send me by Capt. Rowe (as he expects to be here by Christmas) Mr. Dr. Clarke's published since I left, i.e. I have Komang, likewise Benson's notes, with some tickets, have had no tickets since Oct. last. also some pieces of cloth paper. The rainy season has commenced much earlier than year than last, it is quite a complete rainy day to day. My looking over my accounts which I sent to Mr. Wood some time since I find that there is some errors occasional. My only not receiving at that time some accounts between me & Mr. Wood of some goods received from him. I'll correct the account in my next quarter. I cannot as yet get any images or gregories worth sending such things are not to be got easily without going to the country, please present my respects to the Committee, Mr. M. & Family I intend writing to our good friends Mr. & Mrs. Fleming. I am for

Yours truly William DAVIS
